

Position Name:

Business Development Associate

Who we are:

MSA is a socially-driven global consulting firm. We provide innovative solutions for the private sector, government and civil society to improve, measure, and communicate the economic and social impacts of their investments. We believe market dynamics have a strong impact on how people live their lives. Our vision is to improve economic systems in order to reduce poverty. We recognize complexity and as such, use a systems approach to design solutions that work within dynamic environments. We work collaboratively with our clients, serving as brokers of creativity to help catalyze systemic change.

We provide services for clients around action research, monitoring, strategic advisory, evaluation and thought leadership across five topic areas: market systems development, jobs and trade, economic empowerment, financial inclusion and impact investing.

Since 2009 we have worked with a wide variety of clients and partners in dozens of countries across six continents.

Our work:

At MSA, our staff build results measurement systems for development programs, social enterprises and impact investors; research power dynamics and their influence on market behaviors; train client staff to

MSA's VALUES

EXCELLENCE

We believe in what we do – it's why we're here. Our work reflects our passion.

DISRUPTION

We're here to do development differently – more empowering, more systemic, with more proof.

HUMILITY

We see self-awareness as a prerequisite to learning.

HUSTLE

Good things don't come to those who wait. We drive networking and new business the same way we drive innovation – restlessly.

COLLABORATION

We're better together, drawing on each other's viewpoints and experiences to deliver for clients. Working in teams is core to our identity.

CELEBRATION

We work hard and life gets hectic – we take time to celebrate and enjoy it. Otherwise, what's the point?

think more systemically about the problems they seek to address; pitch MSA's services to new potential clients; write thought pieces; and brainstorm new approaches to old problems. Regardless of task, our focus on disrupting the status quo demands critical engagement.

Who we want:

MSA seeks a driven professional with exceptional organizational skills and ideally some business development (sales) experience to join the team in the position of Business Development Associate.

MSA is growing – this opportunity offers significant potential for the successful candidate to grow with us, assuming progressively greater responsibility with MSA.

The nature of the role:

This is a part-time position that will report to MSA's Business Development Lead & Program Advisor. MSA's headquarters are in Colorado, USA. In order to enable close collaboration with the rest of the team, the successful candidate will be based in Denver.

We are looking for someone who finds fulfillment in:

- Driving forward client relationships and partnerships. This person enjoys working with the internal team, but will spend significant time engaging and collaborating with clients and potential clients. Being communicative, diplomatic and having the ability to navigate people-dynamics is critical to succeed in this role. Previous experience having led on client relationships in a business development role is critical. This also includes supporting the management of a pipeline of potential work and partnerships.
- Hustle. This is the type of person who reads MSA's values and says "Hustle really resonates with me." MSA is a small business and managing a team to excel at business development requires hustle and a strategic mind-set. We want someone who gets excited by the hustle of finding new work and closing deals. If the push to build relationships and deal-making energizes you, this is the right fit for you.
- Being reliable - You under-promise and over-deliver. We always know we can count on you when you are responsible for a task to get it done on time and correctly.
- Having exceptional organizational skills - MSA is all about efficiency. You should always question our processes and systems and think critically to come up with improvements.
- Executing - You thrive on checking things off your to do list.
- Being a collaborator – You bring a positive, solutions focused attitude to work every day. This means that you reflect our values and share your positivity with your colleagues.
- Engaging interpersonal skills – you are an enthusiastic team builder with great people-sense. You will be comfortable engaging with and building relationships with team members, clients, vendors and other stakeholders.

- Managing yourself – This means you can discern the top priorities from among various short-term and long-term tasks and stay focused on those. Others don't need to follow-up with you – you are on top of your tasks and proactively update your colleagues on the status of priorities and flagging areas where input is required.
- Most of all you bring a positive, can-do attitude. MSA's team members work hard and play hard; we want our colleagues to share in our successes and celebrations.

Requirements:

- 2-5 years of professional experience supporting business development efforts and/or program implementation for donor-funded projects, including those funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID)
